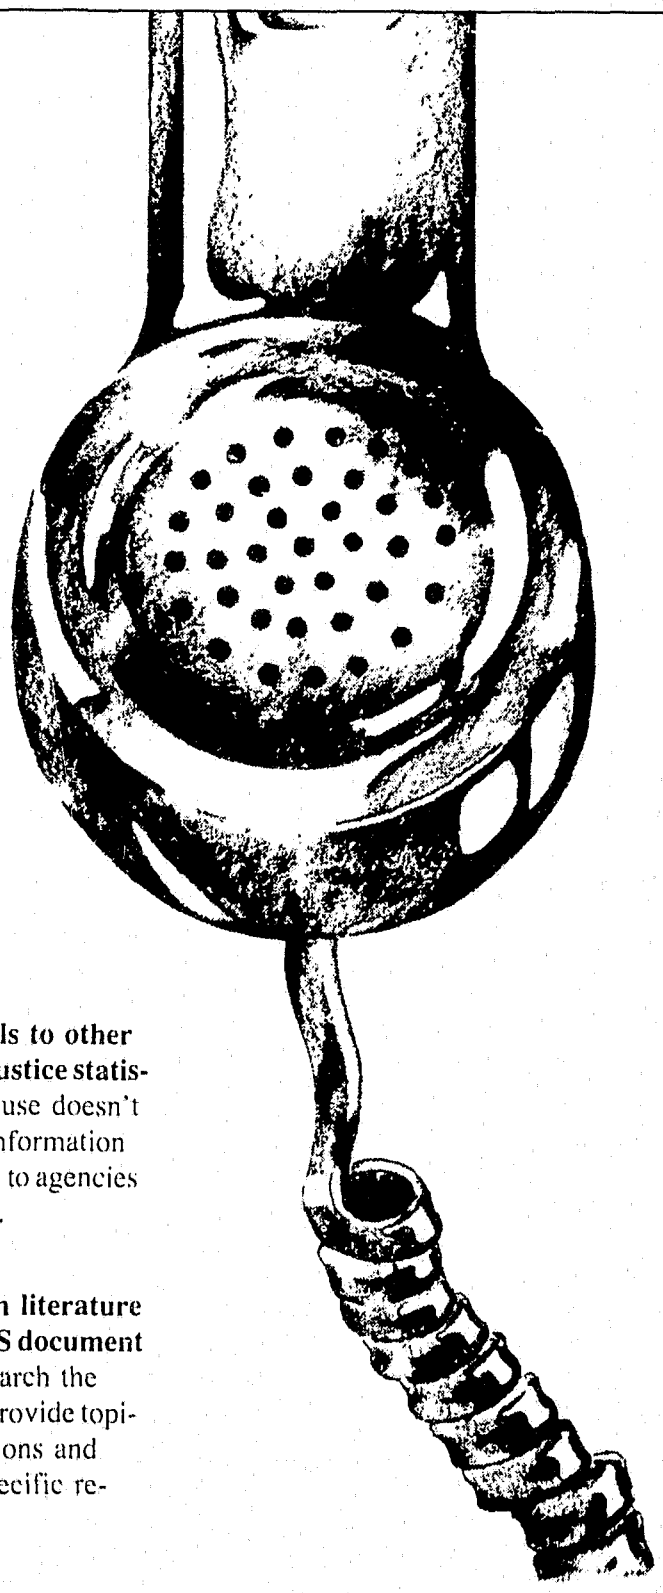
Bureau of Justice Statistics Announces the Justice Statistics Clearinghouse



The Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS), in conjunction with the National Criminal Justice Reference Service (NCJRS), announces the establishment of the Justice Statistics Clearinghouse. The Clearinghouse toll-free number is:

800–732–3277

Persons from Maryland and the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area should call 301–251–5500.

Services offered by the Clearinghouse include:

- Responding to statistical requests. How many rapes are reported to the police? How many burglaries occurred in the past year? Call the Clearinghouse, toll free.

- Providing information about BJS services. Interested in receiving BJS documents and products? Register with the BJS mailing list by calling the Clearinghouse, toll free.

- Suggesting referrals to other sources for criminal justice statistics. If the Clearinghouse doesn't have the answer, an information specialist will refer you to agencies or individuals who do.

- Conducting custom literature searches of the NCJRS document data base. We can search the NCJRS data base and provide topical bibliographic citations and abstracts to answer specific requests.

- Collecting statistical reports. The Clearinghouse collects statistical reports from numerous sources. Submit statistical documents to share with criminal justice colleagues to: NCJRS, Attention BJS Acquisition, Box 6000, Rockville, MD 20850.

You have 24-hour access to the Justice Statistics Clearinghouse. From 8:30 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. EST, weekdays, an information specialist is available. After work hours, you may record your orders or leave a message for an information specialist to return your call.
